

Harbor General Hospital Scene Of Church Rites

Responding to a request for religious services at the Harbor General hospital, the Rev. Clyde E. Ruckman, of Torrance Methodist church, provided rites Sunday in cooperation with J. E. Smits, superintendent of the institution.

The Rev. Mr. Ruckman took the Methodist choir of 20 voices to the hospital for music, and ten members of the Youth Fellowship to assist in taking into the chapel the wheel-chair and bedridden patients and in returning them to their wards.

Commended as an enjoyable service for the patients and the church group, the Rev. Mr. Ruckman urged that the idea be taken up by other church groups.

Smits declared that he will be happy to confer with other ministers who are willing to cooperate and urged the Sunday morning service at 9:30 a.m. as a regular event. Many patients have expressed a similar desire.

Busiest holiday season

All year long we have been building up our telephone plant—adding long distance facilities. Even with this expansion, the huge volume of everyday calls keeps our equipment busy at peak capacity.

We will do everything we can to handle holiday calls promptly, but with the extra volume of calls there will be unavoidable delays. That's why we suggest that if you place a friendly holiday long distance call, you do so on days other than December 24 or 25. Thank you.
